I deposited money to my BPI Trade account number but my cash position is still zero (0). Why is that?

Deposits made to your BPI Trade Settlement Account through any of the channels (i.e. EOL, Mobile Banking, ATM) before 10:00 PM on a banking day shall reflect in your Cash Position the NEXT Trading day. Any deposits made beyond 10:00PM on a banking day, weekend and/or holiday shall reflect after T+2 (transaction date + 2 banking days).

YOUR BPI TRADE ACCOUNT INFORMATION

How do I change any of my account information (e.g. email address, home address, etc.)?

- Contact the Client Relations Hotline Number 8169100 select Option 3 for Administrative Requests
- Email your request to bpitrade@bpi.com.ph
- Send a signed letter of request along with a photocopy of 1 valid picture ID at our office address
BPI Securities Corporation
3rd Floor BPI Building
Ayala Avenue, Corner Paseo de Roxas
Makati City 1226

During account opening, you are assigned a single Client Record that will be linked to your account. If you have more than one (1) account, or if you are one of the account holders of a joint account, the same Client Record will be linked to these accounts. If you are the principal account holder of a joint account, the following account information will be based on your Client Record:

- Mailing Address
- Nationality
- Email Address
- Residency

Any changes to your Client Record will also change the above information of the account/s where it is linked as a principal accountholder with BPI Trade account records only.

How often do I need to update my account information?

- ✓ When your contact information such as mailing address, contact numbers and email have changed
- ✓ When your marital status changed
- ✓ When you receive a notice via email or letter to update your account information

Why do we need to update our account information?

- ✓ To ensure that our clients receive important notices and advisories – BPI Trade Online refers to your last recorded contact information for account, Corporate Action, system and/or trading transaction-related advisories or notices.
- ✓ To avoid interrupted services – As per policy, clients shall be required to update their account information 2 years after the account has been opened or as required. Failure to comply with this requirement may lead to temporary suspension to closure of account.
- ✓ To adhere to regulatory requirements - BPI Securities Corporation commits to support the fight against money laundering and terrorist financing by adhering to the 2016 Revised Implementing Rules and Regulations of Republic Act No. 9160 also known as the "Anti-Money Laundering Act of 2001" and BSP Circulars 706 and 950, which involves stringent know your customer (KYC) policies and procedures.

I have changes to my contact and account information and requested my Branch of Account to update my records. Will this automatically update my BPI Trade and BPI Trade settlement account details also?

No. Clients should notify BPI Trade separately regarding any changes to account and contact information.

I have updated my civil status from Single to Married. What do I need to do to update my records with BPI Trade account information?

Please contact BPI Trade Client Relations Hotline Number 8169100 to request for the forms to update your BPI Trade Account information. You will also need to submit a photocopy of your Marriage Certificate to support the change of Civil Status and name. Do note that your Branch of Account will also need to be notified of the change. Updating your account information with BPI Trade does not automatically update your bank account/s records.

I'm getting a notification that my account is temporarily suspended. What causes this error?

There are several reasons for BPI Trade Online account suspension:

1. Past Due transaction (BUY) – this happens when on settlement date (T+3), BPI Trade is unable to settle your buying transaction due to one of the following:

- Insufficient funds - although it is true that a client can post a buy order using their available cash balance, insufficient funds may arise from PDTC monthly service fee debited within your settlement period and/or if your account is debited for not meeting the average daily balance (ADB) which incurs a charge every end of month.
- BPI Trade Settlement account number is Dormant – your BPI Trade settlement account number (SETA) is tagged dormant when (1) there are no cash movements to the account for 24 or more months in a row, regardless if there's cash balance (2) when your SETA is left with zero balance for 24 or more months in a row.

BPI Trade notifies clients on T+4 via email if a buy transaction is not settled and provides the schedule of temporary suspension of account so clients may have enough time for settlement prior to temporary account suspension.

2. Past Due transaction (SELL) – this happens when on settlement date (T+3), BPI Trade is unable to credit your selling proceeds due to the following reasons:

- BPI Trade Settlement account number is Dormant – your BPI Trade settlement account number (SETA) is tagged dormant when (1) there are no cash movements to the account for 24 or more months in a row, regardless if there's cash balance (2) when your SETA is left with zero balance for 24 or more months in a row.
- BPI Trade Settlement account number is Closed – your BPI Trade settlement account number (SETA) is tagged closed when there is no cash movement and account is left with zero balance for 36 months in a row.

BPI Trade notifies clients on T+4 via email if a sell transaction is not settled and provides the schedule of temporary suspension of account so clients may have enough time for settlement prior to temporary account suspension.

Important Reminders for Past Due Transactions:

- ✓ To ensure uninterrupted service, please ensure that your BPI Trade settlement account number meets the average daily balance of P500 monthly and allot an amount for your PDTC monthly service fee.
- ✓ Keep your contact information updated at all times, especially your email address, landline and mobile number. This is so we can advise immediately if we are unable to settle your buying transaction.

3. BPI Trade Account has no cash movement for 12 months from the last transaction (Dormant) – BPI Trade Online may tag your account Dormant when the account has not been used 3 years after the last trading transaction or if the account has not been used at all for 3 years since account opening.

4. Account has not been updated for 2 or more years in a row – BPI Trade sends out annual reminders to all clients to update their account information where forms similar to the account opening requirements may be requested. Failure to submit the requirements within the given period may result to temporary suspension of access to your online trading account.

How do we request for account reactivation?

- For accounts temporarily suspended due to Past Due transactions (buy/sell) – ensure that settlement is done immediately. BPI Trade Client Relations may request for proof of deposit to your BPI Trade SETA so lifting of suspension may be processed immediately.
- For accounts suspended due to BPI Trade SETA dormancy or closure – BPI Trade Client Relations will need to request for clients to submit forms similar of the account opening requirements which includes:
 1. Signed Letter of Request for Account Reactivation
 2. Updated Customer Reference Card
 3. FATCA Form (if client have yet to submit since 2014)
 4. Updated Signature Card
 5. Supporting Documents such as proof of residence and/or proof of financial capability, employment or source of income
 6. Photocopy of one (1) valid ID
- For accounts tagged as Dormant due to no trading activities for 3 or more years - BPI Trade Client Relations will need to request for clients to submit forms similar of the account opening requirements which includes:
 1. Signed Letter of Request for Account Reactivation
 2. Updated Customer Reference Card
 3. FATCA Form (if client have yet to submit since 2014)
 4. Updated Signature Card
 5. Supporting Documents such as proof of residence and/or proof of financial capability, employment or source of income
 6. Photocopy of one (1) valid ID

Important Reminders in Updating your BPI Trade Online account information: BPI Trade sends out notices every year to remind clients to update their contact and account information details. To effectively process the request for updating, BPI Trade may require clients to re-submit forms such as the Client Reference Card (similar to the Account Opening Form), FATCA, Signature Card, photocopies of unexpired valid IDs and additional supporting documents such as proof of billing, proof of employment and/or source of income

Bring the forms to any BPI or BPI Family branch for signature and information verification then submit to BPI Securities Corporation office located at 3rd floor BPI Building, Ayala Ave corner Paseo de Roxas, Makati, Philippines 1226. Clients may:

- Ask the branch to send the application forms to BPI Securities Corporation
- Bring all the requirements directly to BPI Securities Corporation

YOUR BPI TRADE ONLINE PORTFOLIO

How do I know how much available balance I have for online trading?

- For Internet Cash Clients, refer to your Buying Power located on the upper right corner of the MAIN PAGE. Your Buying Power is your BPI Trade Account Cash Balance + Sell Proceeds (added upon a matched SELL transaction)
- For Internet Trading Line Clients, refer to your Tradable Balance found on the upper right corner of the MAIN PAGE. Your Tradable Balance is equal to 50% of the Market Value of your stocks classified as PSEi (Philippine Stock Exchange Index) Shares.

How do I view my Stock Position online?

You can view your Current Stock Position online by accessing your Portfolio page. Your stock positions are immediately credited once a buy order has been matched, while placing a sell order will immediately reduce your position regardless if the Sell Order is matched. The earmarking is lifted once a Sell order is cancelled. Shares earmarked for the unmatched Sell Orders will revert to your Stock position after market closes. Your holdings are valued at average cost, which is the average purchase price inclusive of commission fees and other charges.

How do I withdraw funds from my BPI Trade account?

1. Log on to www.bpitrade.com
2. On the Main tab, click on Account Info then click on Withdrawal
3. Refer to your Withdrawable Funds
4. Enter the amount you wish to withdraw, click the NEXT button
5. Enter your BPI Trade Online password to confirm then click NEXT to submit the request

Where does my withdrawn funds go?

Your funds are transferred to the regular deposit account you nominated in your application form (Beneficiary Account in BPI which is either a Savings or Checking Account).

When will my withdrawn funds be transferred to my Beneficiary account number?

There is a 10:00AM (Manila time) processing cut-off for withdrawals.

- If withdrawal request is made before 10:00AM on a trading day, the withdrawn amount will be credited to your Beneficiary Account between 3:00- 6:00PM on the same day.
- Requests submitted after the 10:00AM cut-off will be credited to your Beneficiary Account on the NEXT trading day between 3:00- 6:00PM

If your Beneficiary account number is a BPI Family Checking/Savings Bank:

- The withdrawn amount will be credited to your Beneficiary Account three (3) trading days from the approval of your request between 3:00- 6:00PM if request was submitted on or before 10:00AM on a trading day
- Requests submitted after the 10:00AM cut-off will be credited to your Beneficiary Account four (4) trading days from the approval of the request between 3:00- 6:00PM

I'm trying to withdraw from my BPI Trade account. My Withdrawable Funds is less than my Cash and Buying Power. Why is that?

You may have a selling transaction already added to your buying power. Your selling proceeds will only be cleared and credited to your BPI Trade Account as withdrawable cash after T+3 days clearing (three trading days after the transaction date).

How do I change my password?

1. Login to your BPI Trade Online Account
2. Click on the Main Tab
3. Select Account Info then click on Profile
4. Type your existing password in the Old Password box
5. Type your new password on the New and Confirm Password Box
6. Click on Update Password
7. Your account will automatically be logged off and see the Account Profile Update.
8. Login to your account using your newly nominated password

Tip: Use a Password that is easy for you to remember but hard for others to guess.

What are the password requirements?

- Minimum of 7 characters
- Maximum of 20 characters
- At least 1 Upper Case (e.g. BPI)
- At least 1 Number (e.g. 3)
- At least 1 Special Character (e.g. "!" or "*") except for the pound sign " # " and apostrophe sign " ' "

What if I forget my user id or password?

You may request for your user ID or password reset through the following channels:

- Email: bpitrade@bpi.com.ph
- Call BPI Trade Client Relations Hotline Number at 8169100
- Through Express Phone Banking:
Within Metro Manila: 89-100 then press 3 for Electronic Banking Purposes, 3 for BPI Trade and 1 for Forgotten User Name and/or Password
Domestic Toll Free: 1-800-188-89100
International Number: +63+2+89+10000 (to speak to a 24-hour Phone Banker)

Please note that in order to obtain your user ID and/or a temporary password for reset, our Phone Banking team is required perform PID (Personal Identification), which means they will ask questions to validate your identity. This requirement is crucial in making sure that your account is protected.

(Source: November 14, 2013 Article II, Section 2 of the Approved Amendment to the revised Trading Rules Regarding the Extended Pre-Close Period of the PSE)

What can I trade?

For stock trading, you can buy or sell any issue/stocks listed on the Philippine Stock Exchange (PSE).

What are Market Segments and how do they differ?

Market Segments Definition

Normal Market The Normal Market is where Board lot orders are traded

Odd Lot Market The Odd Lot Market is where orders with volume or quantity less than the defined Board lot are traded. Tick on Odd Lot when posting Odd Lot orders

Both markets are defined separately and are independent from one another during trading. One security is defined separately in the Odd Lot Market and Normal Market. Each will have its own Bid/Offer prices.

Board Lots and Price Fluctuations

PRICE	TICK SIZE	LOT SIZE
0.0001 to 0.0099	0.0001	1,000,000
0.0100 to 0.0490	0.001	100,000
0.0500 to 0.2490	0.001	10,000
0.2500 to 0.4950	0.005	10,000

5000.0000 and UP	5	5

(Source: Board Lot System of the PSE)

What types of orders can I place?

For common stocks, BPI Trade can accept limit orders that are good for the day, Good-till-Week (GTW), and Good-till-Month (GTM). When you place an order, you will have to specify a limit price or specific price and not a price range for the order. Unfulfilled orders are automatically removed from the system at the close of trading for the day except for GTW and GTM orders. BPI Trade does not accept "Orders at Market Price" and "Good-till-Cancelled Orders".

What are the rules in posting an order?

1. The price of an order should always be within the Trading Thresholds. High Threshold will replace the term Ceiling Price while Low Threshold will replace the term Floor Price
2. Combining Normal and Odd Lot orders are not allowed. Please note the following:
 - Partial matching of odd lot orders will be allowed
 - Odd lot orders will no longer be subjected to minimum commission
 - Odd lot order posting will only be allowed during Continuous Trading Period
 - Odd lot market will have its own closing price but will adopt the price of the Normal market during opening

What is the basis for the Dynamic Thresholds (price range of D/FLOOR and D/CEILING) we see when posting an order online?

The basis for the limits is ruled by the Implementing Guidelines of the Revised Trading Rules of PSE released last July 22, 2010 section VI. Trading Thresholds 3. Dynamic thresholds:

- a. The Dynamic Threshold is the maximum allowable price difference between an update in the Last Traded Price (LTP) of a given Security or group of Securities and its preceding LTP that is equal to a percentage set by the Exchange, subject to the classification of a Security or a group of Securities based on its trade frequency.
- b. Listed Securities will be classified in three clusters and will be subject to different Dynamic Thresholds as follows:"

Are there any monthly fees that we need to pay?

PDTC (Philippine Depository & Trust Corporation) charges BPI Securities Corporation a Depository Maintenance Fee of PHP 0.00000833 for every Peso market value of your holdings as of month end. This will be debited from your BPI Trade Settlement account monthly.

If the computation resulted to an amount less than Php1.00, the fee is automatically waived.

How do I pay for my purchases?

The funds that are deposited into your BPI Trade Settlement Account will be used to pay for your purchases. Before a buy order can be accepted, you must have sufficient cleared funds in your BPI Trade Settlement account. To find out how much you still have available for trading, just go to your Portfolio screen. Your purchases are automatically earmarked against your available balance.

Please note that you have to have cleared funds into your BPI Trade Settlement account at least one (1) banking day before your intended transaction.

When is my BPI Trade Settlement Account debited for purchases?

Your BPI Trade Settlement Account will be debited on settlement date, which is T+3 (three trading days after the transaction date).

Can I sell my investments on the same day that I bought them?

Yes, for stock purchases, these are already reflected in your online stock position and are available for sale. To view your stock position online, View Portfolio.

If I sell today, can I already use the proceeds to buy?

Proceeds of your selling transaction will only be credited on T+3 (three business days after the transaction date) following the Settlement Rule. However, you may post a buy order against incoming sell proceeds as reflected in your Cash or Tradable Balance.

Do you impose a minimum volume per trade?

Trading on the Philippine Stock Exchange is done by board lot or round lot system. Therefore, the minimum number of shares you can buy or sell will depend on the market price of the stock at the time you place your order. Also, price fluctuations are not uniform, but are dependent on the price range where the stock is trading.

Odd Lots are traded on the Odd Lot board.

Can I cancel an order?

Yes, an order may be cancelled as long as it hasn't been matched. It is important to know that the request to cancel an order cannot be guaranteed, as your order may have already been fulfilled or partially fulfilled by the time the cancel request reaches the market. If your order has been partially fulfilled, you may cancel only the unfulfilled portion. To cancel an order, select the order you wish to cancel.

Please refer to the Trading Hours for the No Cancellation period during the trading day.

Can I still trade during off-hours?

Off-hours posting of orders are available with BPI Trade. Please note that these orders are submitted to the exchange at 9:00AM the next trading day. As such, the date reflected on the posting will be at 9:00AM the next trading day.

How does the system compute for the Average Cost?

Average Cost is the Total Acquisition (Buying) Cost / Total Number of Shares.

THE BPI TRADE SETTLEMENT ACCOUNT

Where are my funds kept before I trade?

Your funds are kept in a special purpose interest bearing savings account opened with the Bank of the Philippine Islands in your name. The BPI Trade Settlement Account does not allow withdrawals through normal banking channels.

What is the difference between my Beneficiary and Settlement account number?

The Settlement (BPI Trade) Account is used exclusively for settling trading-related transactions, while your Beneficiary Account is your existing BPI or BFB account in which funds withdrawn from the Settlement account shall be transferred.

Can I withdraw from my BPI Trade Account using other channels like OTC (Over the Counter), EOL (Express Online) and Phone Banking?

No, withdrawal from your BPI Trade account can only be done by submitting a withdrawal request from BPI Trade Online.

Please note that BPI Trade will handle only the transfer of funds from your BPI Trade Settlement Account to your nominated BPI or BFB Beneficiary Account. For outward remittance requests or currency conversion of the withdrawn amount, please coordinate with the bank branch of your BPI Beneficiary Account.

Will the cash balance in my BPI Trade Settlement Account earn interest?

Yes, your BPI Trade Settlement Account is considered as Regular Savings Account that earns interest. Any cash balance that remains in your BPI Trade Settlement Account will earn interest calculated based on your average daily balance. Interest is credited to your BPI Trade Settlement account at the end of every quarter.

Are there any account maintenance charges?

If your BPI Trade Settlement Account falls below the monthly ADB (Average Daily Balance) requirement of PhP 500.00, you will be charged a service fee of PhP 250.00 per month.

What is ADB (Average Daily Balance) and how is it computed?

ADB refers to Average Daily Balance, which is defined as the sum of the daily end-of-day balances in the account for a month divided by the number of days in that month.

The formula for computing ADB is as follows:

$$\text{ADB} = \frac{(\text{Day 1 ending balance} + \text{Day 2 ending balance} \dots + \text{Day 30/31 ending balance})}{\text{Number of days in the month (i.e. 30/31 days)}}$$
